ENVIRONMENT AND LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Some cancers are well understood and even preventable with the right lifestyle choices, tests, and environmental factors to support cancer prevention.

"When my husband was told he had kidney cancer, we searched the web for hours, but we ended our searches more scared and confused than when we started.

My employer told me about Cancer Expert Now and the following day we spoke to a top kidney oncologists, Dr. Janice Dutcher, from our kitchen! After 30-minutes speaking with Dr. Dutcher we understood Jim's diagnosis, which tests he had done and their results, which tests we still needed, and the options available to us. Most importantly, we had the confidence we needed to get Jim staged and treated locally. We are now 2-years since surgery and Jim is cancer free! I can't thank my employer enough for being prepared."
